Resolution.—The Government may be approached in the matter.

(4) Messrs. S. G. Sonnappa and Suryanarayanappa, Sidlaghatta.

The amount contributed by devotees on behalf of the Sri Venugopalaswami temple at Sidlaghatta has been invested in 3½ per cent Government of India Pronotes. The interest thus realised is hardly enough to defray any of the expenses of the temple. It is therefore prayed that the said amount may be arranged to be transferred to 6½ per cent State Loan Bonds or 5 per cent Government Savings Bank Deposit.

Resolution.—A recommendation may be sent to the Muzrai Commissioner.

It is prayed that Mulbagal Town be connected with Railway.

The raiyats of Kammasandra of Kolar Taluk are impounding large quantity of water by putting an earthen wall on the kodi of Ayyanakere of the village, an abandoned tank and are actually selling water to the atchkatdars of Uttanur tank. If this is allowed, the atchkat lands of Lakshmisagara tank becomes submerged and other important serial tanks such as Holali, Bethamangal and Ramasagara will be injuriously affected. It is therefore prayed that orders be passed prohibiting the raiyats from doing so.

Resolution.—The Deputy Commissioner may be addressed to take necessary action.

8. Manjalanagara tank is in a state of utter disrepair. If at any time the tank fills, the supply will be hardly enough for eight days. If the tank is properly repaired the annual yield of the atchkat will be more than Rs. 300 and in its present condition, it is very little benefit to the raiyats. It is therefore prayed that the tank be repaired so as to impound water enough to raise one crop.

Resolution.—The Executive Engineer may be requested to take necessary action.

11. Mr. Venkatasamegowda, Mylaganahalli.

The Manchenahalli-Hindupur road, via Namagondlu is in a very bad condition with the result that raiyats and cattle are subjected to great inconvenience. It is therefore prayed that this road as far as Myalya and Jodi Hunsenahalli villages be made a local fund road.

Resolution.—The question is under consideration.

12. Mr. Venkataswamy Chetty, Chikballapur.
